

ROTARY GRANTS FOR UNIVERSITY TEACHERS FOR 2009-2010

Grants for University Teachers are awarded to higher education faculty to teach at universities in low-income countries other than their own. The purpose of these awards is to build understanding and development while strengthening higher education in the host country.

Applicants for this program must meet the following criteria:

- Applicants must hold (or if retired, have held) a full-time college or university appointment for three or more years but need not hold (or have held) a specific rank.
- The subject(s) taught must have practical use to the host country.
- The applicant's home and host countries must contain at least one Rotary club.
- The proposed host institution must be located in a low-income/developing country. Low-income countries are currently defined as those with a per capita GNP of US$6,375 or less.
- Applicants must be proficient in the language of their prospective host country.
- Applicants may be Rotarians or non-Rotarians.
- Awards are not restricted by gender, age, or marital

Scholarships provide up to $12,500 for a service period of three to five months, and up to $22,500 for a service period of six to ten months.

Prospective applicants may obtain an application and additional information about the Rotary Grants for University Teachers for 2009-2010 by visiting this Rotary Foundation website.
